Young Stars Shine in Enchanting Fable Performance at the Theatre Bellecour.

I couldn't end this edition without covering the extraordinary performances of the children from the Pain d'Épice Theatre's Club under the direction of Maîtresse Caroline.

Nice, December 14 – A sense of excitement and pride filled the air at the Theatre Bellecour on Saturday morning as Maîtresse Caroline and her Pain d'Épice theatre troupe delivered a heartwarming and humorous adaptation of Les Fables de La Fontaine.

The young actors, aged between 3 and 8 years old, charmed the packed audience of parents and supporters with their spirited performances. Caroline's clever rewrites of the classic fables infused them with humor and a fresh perspective, delighting children and adults alike.

Behind the scenes, teamwork made the magic happen. Maîtresse Fiona masterfully managed the lighting, while Mélanie ensured that the sound enhanced every moment. Carole worked tirelessly backstage coordinating props and creating smooth transitions between scenes.

The show was a resounding success, with laughter and applause echoing through the theatre. Parents were visibly moved as they watched their children confidently take the stage, and the audience left with smiles and fond memories of a truly joyful matinée.

The Pain d'Épice troupe once again proved that even the smallest stars can shine the brightest when guided with care and creativity.

Thank you Maîtresse Caroline for all your dedication and for making this show such a brilliant performance.

Miss Claire.
